Searching for the place to go to
When the

We have read a hundred booklets
Each with pictures of the grounds.
Setting forth the terms and beauties
Where the

We have counted price of tickets
And the cost of all the job
In a hundred mountain places
Where the

RUSSIA is a seething cauldron of discontent, and nothing short of complete revolution, bloody and revolting, will terminate that unhappy country's troubles.

AND now an Illinois Judge has resigned his Church membership because the Board of Trustees accepted a gift from ANDREW CARNEGIE. The Judge says ANDY's money is "tainted." It would be interesting to know his opinion of some of the money possessed by some lawyers.

THERE is quite a fall in the cost of bombs in Russia, thanks to lively competition and the active demand. Recent "festivities" over there have been the direct result of well-printed proclamations exhorting the people to prepare for a coup d'etat. "Reliable bombs," it is stated in these notices, "which a year ago cost five rubles, can now be made for forty copecks, thanks to the universally diffused knowledge of the construction of the popular arm. Patriots, if the worst comes to the worst, must combine for the expeditious removal of every high-placed military and civil official. Destroy the commanders and officers and the troops will fraternize with us. In any case the people must be prepared to wage the conflict by putting one terror against another."

Just half a dozen young people "rocked the boat" on a stream near Chicago a few days ago, and now there are three more inhabitants in Fool's Paradise.

SOME fellow down at Louisville, who isn't in possession of enough practical knowledge to wad a popgun, is proclaiming against the Sunday-morning newspaper as a Sabbath-breaker. This fellow ought to be led around to The Courier-Journal or The Herald office and "shown." He would find that the minimum of work is done on Sunday on the paper that is issued on Sunday morning, while the maximum of work is done on Sunday on the paper that is issued on Monday morning.

SHE MISUNDERSTOOD.

She had promised to come to town and to go to luncheon with him, and about noon she opened his office door, says London Tid Bits. Her husband's voice at the 'phone made her stop to listen.

"That you, Darling?" he was saying. "My wife's coming down today, so we can't have that spread. But we'll have it tomorrow. Meet me at the usual place; you know. Yes; all right. Goodby."

She slipped quietly away, and, although he waited until 2 o'clock, his little wife did not come to go to luncheon with him.

By the time he got home that night she had fought it out with herself and determined to have an explanation. So she said, as calmly as she could—

"George, do you usually go out alone to lunch?"

"Why, yes," he answered. "That is, unless Darling goes with me."

"Darling?" she cried. "For pity's sake, George, who is?"

"Why, Jack Darling. Don't you know?"

She got up and it was several minutes before he could check her sobs and get her to explain why she had broken her appointment.

It is now proposed to make suits of clothes of paper, which can be thrown away when soiled.

"SOAKED!"

WHAT THE FARMER SAYS HE GOT WHEN HE BOUGHT UNADVERTISED WARES

"I've been soaked a good many times since I started in business for myself," said the farmer, "and I note that it has always been in the article not advertised. I started into getting soaked in business by buying a lightning rod per foot and settling for it per inch. That soaking was followed up by the purchase of a patent gate that wasn't advertised. It was sold to me on such a close margin, the agent said, that the firm couldn't afford to advertise it. I've bought everything from hedge fences to encyclopedias that weren't advertised, and if there is a piece of unadvertised furniture on this place that is of any account I've not fallen over it. I have got so that when an agent calls on me with something I don't understand I ask him where it is advertised. If he can't show me anything but a pocket full of handbills I call the dogs."

WE ARE SELLING MORE HIGH-TONED

CLOTHING

Than ever before. It may be due to our splendid offerings; it may be that others are selling less. It is hard to get by that dependable H., S. & M. for men or that mother-admired line of Ederheimer-Stein (extra good) for boys. Each line, by individual character and respective merit, wins customers, and ours is the only store in Maysville where they may be found. INTEREST IN THE WHOLE FAMILY—In selecting our stock we stopped only when a most exacting taste was satisfied in styles and fabric, while the garments here and there are strengthened and fashioned by the tailor's needle where machinery has not yet caught the cunning of the hand. Neither time nor pains were spared in selecting, and in selling we will act the same. WE WILL FIT YOU—the child, the youth, the man, from infancy to old age, in a style becoming to each and in a manner pleasing to mother, sister or wife. Same price to you as to your neighbor—one treatment to all.

Special Attention to Our Two-Piece Suits, The Regal Blue and the Regent Gray, $7.50 to $20

Straw Hats 50c to $5. Our Furnishing stock provides everything for comfort and style. Trunks, Bags and Suit Cases—We offer the makes worthy of our guarantee.

Each purchase subject to home approval. Your money back if it meets it not.

Rains have caused the rivers at headwaters to swell a few feet.

On account of the lack of a general rainfall there is much apprehension among rivermen of a navigable stage of water along the Upper Ohio this season. For many years within the memory of rivermen there have come the June and July rises, which have allowed boats of all classes to navigate until the end of June at least. This year, however, the rise has been slight, and there is every indication that the river will continue to fall for some time to come.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. DEEDS, NOT WORDS.

Maysville People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home.

It's not words, but deeds that prove true merit.

The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills, For Maysville kidney sufferers, Have made their local reputation. Proof lies in the testimony of Maysville people who have been cured to stay cured.

John Wallingford, living at the corner of Commerce and East Second streets, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I first procured Doan's Kidney Pills in 1899 at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, and they stopped an attack of backache, one of many which had annoyed me for some time. My wife at that time gave for publication in our local papers a statement telling of the great benefit I had derived from Doan's Kidney Pills, and now, some five years later, I can say that the cure then effected has been complete and permanent. My back and kidneys have never given me the least cause for complaint. Mrs. Wallingford also appreciated the value of Doan's Kidney Pills from personal experience with them. She suffered most acutely with backache, especially at night, and Doan's Kidney Pills promptly and thoroughly cured her."

Memorial Exercises

The Blue and the Gray Listen to an Eloquent Tribute to the Heroic Dead

Decoration Day, though a heritage of bloodshed and strife, is now hallowed and revered by a reunited and happy people. As has been said, Grant and Lee dug the grave for sectional hate at Appomattox. It has slowly been filling up ever since, and praise be to God the people are now ready to cast it into oblivion forever.

The morning dawned bright and glorious, giving promise of a beautiful day. As the day grew older a leaden sky appeared, and by noon clouds foreshadowing rain overspread the sky, which no doubt deterred hundreds from going out to the Cemetery. Notwithstanding, the assemblage was large, and never did the resting place of the Nation's dead look more beautiful, garlanded as it was with flowers and ferns. Scarcely a grave but contained a rose or wreath, placed there by loving hands in memory of the departed one.

Joseph Heiser Post No. 13, G. A. R., though few in numbers, its ranks having been depleted by the passing of its members to the other shore, turned out in a body, being joined by a goodly number of the Patriotic Order Sons of America, proceeded to the Cemetery, where the ritualistic ceremony in honor of the dead was performed at the Soldiers' Monument, the graves having been strewn with flowers in the morning.

At the conclusion of the services at the Monument the column marched to Beechwood Park, where the Memorial Address was delivered.

The exercises opened with the singing of "America" by the audience. A prayer by Rev. Milo A. Wallingford followed.

In a few well-chosen remarks Dr. A. N. Ellis, himself an old guard of the Civil War, introduced the speaker of the day, Captain Thomas

A. Davis, whose eloquent address of an hour's duration was applauded and listened to with profound attention throughout. The speaker was a gallant and valiant soldier during the internecine strife, and is familiar with the havoc of war; hence he spoke as one who knew whereof he was speaking.

Along with Grant and Lee, Mr. Davis believed that the War closed with the peace pact at Appomattox, and ever since that memorable occasion he has striven to close the gaping wound caused by the War by holding out the olive branch of peace and extending the hand of good fellowship to the brothers who fought on the opposite side.

He is liberal and broad-minded enough to credit the Southerner with honesty of purpose and a firm faith in the principles for which he sacrificed life and money. He merely grants him that which he himself maintained—the right to think and act as his conscience dictates.

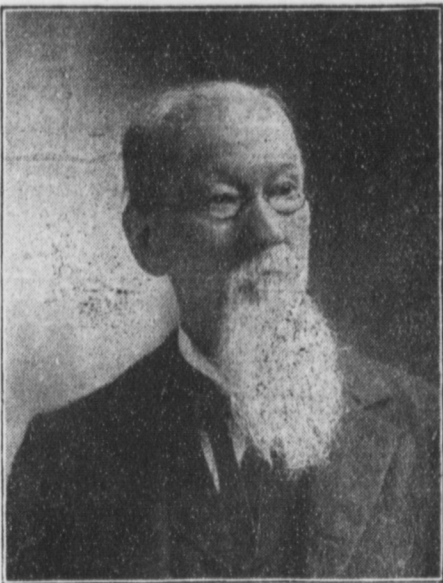

He spoke reverently and pathetically of the Comrades who have passed away since last Decoration Day; neither did he forget those who are nearing the shadow of the other shore.

Taken as a whole, the address was a grand one, worthy of the speaker and the occasion.

At the conclusion, in behalf of Joe Heiser Post, Miss Martha Trapp presented Mr. Davis with a beautiful bouquet.

Many ex-Confederate soldiers who were present came forward and congratulated the speaker.

Barring the racket kept up on the porches of the Auditorium by a number of thoughtless youngsters who ought to have been somewhere else, everything passed pleasantly at the Park.

THOMAS KERR RICKETTS.

The venerable Thomas Kerr Ricketts died last evening at 9:30 at his home in Sutton street of general debility.

Mr. Ricketts was born near this city on June 1st, 1809.

He was the youngest son of Rufus and Mary Ricketts, who came to Kentucky from Cecil county, Md., in 1792, and settled on Jersey Ridge. He came to Maysville on his seventeenth birthday, and from that time to the present has been a resident of this city.

In 1831 he was married to America Martin, who died in 1835.

In 1837 he was married to Violet Poyntz, daughter of John Poyntz of Pittsburgh, Pa., and to them were born six children, two of whom survive.

Mr. Ricketts was a man of remarkable vigor, both mentally and physically, and was for many years identified with the business interests of the city. For the last year or two his health has been failing, and he realized that in the course of nature, he could not live much longer, and expressed a perfect willingness to go when the summons came.

The funeral will occur from the home at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, with services by the Rev. Felix K. Struve of the First M. E. Church, South. Interment in Maysville Cemetery.

BABIES A NUISANCE

A Chattanooga Minister Says They Shouldn't Be Taken to Church

Dr. Howard L. Jones, Pastor of the First Baptist Church, Chattanooga, Tenn., created a sensation in his congregation Sunday when he openly declared war on the presence of babies in Church. He said:

"The baby has no business in Church. He does not hear; he does not understand; his mother cannot hear; his father cannot hear, and when he starts to crying nobody can hear. He disturbs the Minister, and he disturbs the congregation. It is a blasphemy to bring babies to Church and an act of selfishness. The parents who do it are interfering with God's services. Leave the babies at home. They are a nuisance in a place of worship, or any other public place."

RAIN!

Delightful and refreshing rains have fallen upon the farms which I HAVE FOR SALE. The distressing drouth which was causing so much alarm to the agriculturalists is now a thing of the past. Vegetation will advance rapidly and we may yet have abundant crops. I have farms, the fertile soil of which with the proper amount of moisture will assure the industrious husbandman good returns for the time and labor expended. IF YOU HAVE ANY IDEA of buying a farm, you should not delay coming to see me in order to make the proper selection. If you wish to sell, now is the time to list for that purpose. I am receiving MANY INQUIRIES from parties who wish to buy, and doubtless this year will be a RECORD BREAKER in my branch of business. Come to see me at once.

TEACHING THE PREACHERS
Even a Learned Bishop Acknowledges Ability of Editors

Ministers were exhorted to take lessons from modern newspapers by Bishop Fallows in a sermon delivered at the evening session of the General Council of the Reformed Episcopal Church in Philadelphia. The Bishop said that the press in some respects had superceded the pulpit and now exercised many of the latter's functions. He said:

"The preacher of today can learn many valuable lessons from the modern newspaper. He should emulate it and catch its style. The ideal newspaper articles are sharp, short, pungent and to the point. The sermon should have all these characteristics."

The Bishop said the press has been the faithful ally of the pulpit in breaking down caste, in favoring humanitarian reforms and in advocating the rights of all.

"When the Prayer Book was first compiled," he said, "journalism had scarcely begun its existence. Hence no mention is made of Editors in the enumerated list of persons needing the prayers of this Church. No revision ought to be deemed complete which does not include them, for no class requires more intercession by the saints."

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST
BUSINESS COLLEGE

BESIDES giving thousands of bright boys abundant spending money (some earn $15.00 a week) we teach our boys salesmanship, that quality that commands such high salaries in the modern business world. A Brooklyn insurance man, whose son sells THE POST, writes us:

"You are probably conducting the best business college on earth, for you are not dealing with theories but with cold facts in practice, based upon your excellent methods for encouraging and helping boys in every way."

Boys who want to make money, boys who want to be taught how to win, by one of the most successful business firms in the world—these are the boys we want to hear from. We can teach you how to "play the game" and you make good money while you are learning. It doesn't cost you a cent to start—for we furnish the first supply of magazines free and you can buy your next supply with the sales of the first.

We have a booklet that tells about some of our boys—the money they have made, the extra prizes they have won and how they gained success. If you are a "success boy"—made of the right stuff—we want you to write us—right now.
